Parenting Journey

<https://parentingjourney.org>

Parenting Journey programs are not 'how to' classes. They are innovative programs that provide opportunities for mothers, fathers, and caregivers to develop themselves as nurtured and nurturing people, laying the groundwork for a strong family foundation on which to build, all as part of a two-generational approach to building adult capabilities to improve child outcomes.

Parenting Journey offers intensive 5-day facilitator trainings for professionals interested in implementing Parenting Journey programs at their agency. To date, we have trained more than 1,500 facilitators and the Parenting Journey has been replicated at nearly 500 locations across Massachusetts, New York, Florida, Washington, DC, and more!
